Leadership Programs

AACC is interested in partnering with the Affiliated Councils on various leadership programs. Please list the title, date, and location of leadership programs your affiliated council will host between June 2013 - June 2014.

Leaders Institute
June 1-5, 2014
Salt Lake City, Utah

The national board for the American Association for Women in Community Colleges (AAWCC) supports the advancement of community college women into leadership positions.

The LEADERS Institute provides leadership development opportunities for women in Community Colleges across the country. The LEADERS Institute is a five day, content-intensive, experiential workshop, based on a recently revised curriculum reflecting AACC Core Competencies for Leadership. The LEADERS Institute promotes the development of leadership skills and qualities at every level in community college administration and education.

Graduates of the LEADERS Institute are recognized for their excellence in collaboration, encouragement and support for each other, their appreciation that many styles of leadership co-exist, and continuing expansion of their professional talents based on a strong personal foundation. Over the course of 28 years of successes, a coalition of more than 6,000 women leaders has been established.
Publications

Please list any and all publications by your Affiliated Council.

Statement of Affiliated Council’s Purpose and Goals

2013-14 Platform Statement
The AAWCC Board will develop, strengthen and promote pathways to leadership for women who are ready to take the next step in their education or career in AAWCC member colleges. Leadership training, activities and mentor programs will be offered.

By developing a national conversation for women leaders, we strive to bring awareness, advocate for, and take steps to further position these women in their leadership roles. We want to continuously promote the value that these women leaders bring throughout community colleges.

Mission Statement
The American Association of Women in Community Colleges changes women’s lives through education, service and leadership development

AAWCC Values and Promotes:
Women in Leadership
Equity and Economic Independence
Service at All Levels

AAWCC Advocates for and Sponsors:
Diversity of Ideas and Culture
Higher Education Attainment
National Issues Affecting Women in Community Colleges
Professional Development for Career Progression and Achievement
Women’s Professional and Career Accomplishments
Affiliated Council Program Activities for the Current Year
July 1, 2012 - June 30, 2013

Please tell us about pertinent Council/Organization Activities, including annual and regional meetings, seminars and workshops; information on new and on-going publications; and any other information that may be of interest to your colleagues and the AACC. This information will be photocopied and shared with all AACC Councils, and Board and Staff Contacts.

On Tuesday, May 21st, the American Association for Women in Community Colleges in partnership with the American Association of University Women presented important new research about women in community colleges. A panel discussion at Northern Virginia Community College launched the release of the AAUW publication, “Women in Community Colleges: Access to Success.”

Region 2 and Region 5 had conferences. Region 8 held leadership seminars. Oregon chapters held their annual state conference. Across all regions, local chapters hosted a variety of meetings and activities that involved professional development, service, and networking. Activities focused on variety of issues related to leadership in career and community, women’s health, childcare and family matters, and scholarships for students and staff.

Affiliated Council Program Activities for Next Year
July 1, 2013 - June 30, 2014

Please tell us about pertinent future Council/Organization Activities, including annual and regional meetings, seminars and workshops; information on new and on-going publications; and any other information that may be of interest to your colleagues and the AACC. This information will be photocopied and shared with all AACC Councils, and Board and Staff Contacts.

As AACC celebrates 40 years, the national board will look at how far we have come and determine where we need to go. We are organizing a national conversation that will ask women what issues are women still facing in 2014 and what new issues require our attention.

During 2013-2014, we will address leadership, the Completion Agenda, STEM careers, child care, and women’s health. All are issues that face women in community colleges, as employees and as students, and affect quality of life and work life.
