Statement of Affiliated Council’s Purpose and Goals

Please include a statement of the overall purpose and goals of this Council/Organization. The guidelines for affiliation require that a Council’s bylaws support the purposes and objectives of AACC.

Purpose

The general character and nature of the work of the NCBAA is:
To promote the aims and objectives of the American Association of Community Colleges (AACC) as set forth in the governance section of its Constitution;

To provide a national body with which Black constituents of community colleges can identify and affiliate in the interest of effective education of Black people;

To organize and operate for educational purposes as they pertain to effective and quality education of Black people in America, to the enhancement of the American culture, and to the development of the nation’s total resources;

To direct its efforts toward matters which include curricula, human resource development, data collection and dissemination, employment opportunities and communications with members of the NCBAA, AACC and groups with similar goals and objectives;

To develop recommendations of task forces to serve as resources to regional organizations, other councils of AACC and to AACC and pursue solutions to problems of education with which Black people are confronted, through joint efforts with other segments of higher education and groups with similar goals and objectives;

To promote activities designed to sensitize community college personnel to the special needs of Black students in academic curriculum development, retention completion and success in the non-academic areas of personal counseling, career/vocational guidance, academic advisement and financial aid;

To promote activities and programs that emphasize the professional development of Black leadership within colleges, and that recognize and support the implementation of diversity and inclusion; and

To foster the creation and development of special interest groups from within the membership of the NCBAA which address specific concerns and issues. The development and implementation of the policies of these special interest groups shall be consistent with the Constitution of NCBAA.

GOALS

The NCBAA is committed to the following goals:

- To create a collegial environment that enhances the support of and access to community colleges for Black students;
- To strengthen relationships that impact policy development and utilize funding sources to support creative initiatives for Black students, faculty, staff and administrators;
- To identify leadership opportunities that expand participation of students, faculty, staff and administrators in community colleges;
- To promote an organizational culture that strengthens and sustains the professional growth, personal development and career advancement of Black students, faculty, staff and administrators; and
- To enhance the knowledge, abilities and skills of Black students, faculty, staff, and administrators to function effectively within evolving technologies.
Affiliated Council Program Activities for the Current Year
July 1, 2012 - June 30, 2013

National Board of Directors held its winter and summer board meetings and co-sponsored the AACC pre-conference workshop: DIVERSITY & LEADERSHIP IN THE 21ST CENTURY COMMUNITY COLLEGE. Dr. Kathy Hiyane-Brown, president of Whatcom Community College, WA provided the Welcome and moderated a panel discussion on “Courageous Conversations: Dealing with Race and Identity. The Board hosted the annual awards breakfast and reception at the AACC Conference in San Francisco, CA.

Northeast Region

2013 Northeast Region Conference was held on March 14 and 15, 2013 in Baltimore, MD on the campus of Morgan State University and co-sponsored by the Morgan Leadership Program. The theme for this year’s conference was, “Innovative Strategies for Sustainable Student Success”. Plenary speakers included: Dr. Marie Foster Gnage, Chair of the Board of Directors of the American Association of Community Colleges (AACC), Dr. Kim Bobby, Director, Inclusive Excellence Group (IEG) American Council on Education (ACE), Dr. Carol Anderson, Associate Director of the Commission, New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC), and Dr. Terry Hartle, Senior Vice President, American Council on Education (ACE).
