

From: Walter Bumphus
Date sent: 11/18/2016 12:11:28 pm
Subject: CEO to CEO Newsletter - November 18, 2016

Print This

View this email in a browser window.

November 18, 2016

American Association of Community Colleges

Issue # 075

Dear Tina,

None of us are strangers to leadership transitions. Yet, the recent election well illustrates the challenges of change. Without a public record to draw upon, there are many unknowns with regard to President-elect Trump's priorities and policies, which can be unsettling. AACC is already working to establish relationships with the new administration and continues to advocate fiercely on behalf of your colleges. I've heard from some of you about incidents of disturbing behavior and actions on your campuses. As leaders, we must continue to ensure that our campuses are safe havens for students. You can click here to learn more.

MUST READ

“Building Student Success through Dual Enrollment”

Dual enrollment continues to be a focal point of conversations as community colleges and K-12 systems look for ways to improve college readiness. Read about it in Community College Daily.

“Oregon Promise Off to a Strong Start”

About 6,000 students in Oregon enrolled through the Oregon Promise. Get the details in this 21st Century Center post.