What are the common reasons for non-acceptance of proposals?

- A large number of strong proposals were received, not all of which could be accepted due to timing/space considerations.
- Multiple proposals with overlapping content were received.
- Poor description of learning objectives or of what the audience will learn from the presentation.
- Presentation is too narrowly focused or may not have wide audience appeal.
- Proposal was not submitted according to instructions.
- Presentation appears to be a sales pitch for a particular product.
- Panel does not include a panelist from a community college.
- Presentation offers no new ideas or data.
- Panelists are not appropriate for the topic.
- Topic is not appropriate to the target audience.
- Poor grammar.