What was the single biggest concern about guided pathways that you have heard most commonly on your campus?

- Q1 - Isn't college a meritocracy? 2%
- Q2 - Isn't "free choice" the cornerstone of American higher ed? 13%
- Q3 - Won't we sacrifice quality with a move to GP? 3%
- Q4 - Won't we lose the heart of a liberal arts education? 13%
- Q5 - Won't faculty lose control over what is taught in their discipline? 30%
- Q6 - Won't we lose enrollment at our college under GP? 5%
- Q7 - Isn't all of this "hand-holding" hurting graduates? 14%
- Q8 - Don't students benefit from what looks like wandering? 8%
- Q9 - How can students make career decisions at age 18? 9%
- Q10 - Why GP if students change careers 4 to 7 times? 2%
- Q11 - Other 2%

Poll locked. Responses not accepted.